

Declaration of Intent

On Morality and Integrity Policy in 2021

“NHCO Integrity, Transparency and Efficiency towards the Good Governance Organization with Anti-Corruption”

I, Dr. Prateep Dhanakijcharoen, Secretary-General of National Health Commission, which the organization has its vision and goal to promote participatory public policy process based on wisdom and adheres to organizational ethics and to the nation, the religious and the monarchy, shall create and preserve an organization's culture. I shall not tolerate graft and corruption by complying with a good governance principle, increasing efficiency and transparency, creating a mechanism and procedure for a good governance and ensuring a disclosure of information within and outside the organization.

NHCO staffs shall conduct ourselves as a good and morally righteous person, living an honorable life, showing the respect to differences, stand up for what is right by not being dishonest and taking advantages to people and natural resources as well as environment. We shall also develop our knowledge, understanding, raising of consciousness and core value on prevention and anti-corruption.

Additionally, NHCO shall develop and implement the charter of Suchon people and persistently promote the core values of the National Health Commission Office as the organizational culture. The core values consist of 6 characteristics, namely, (1) synergy & strategy (2) operation by teamwork (3) civic mind & communication (4) integrity & righteousness (5) adeptness and (6) learning & adaptation.

Announcement made on February 16 , 2021

(Mr.Prateep Dhanakijcharoen, MD.)

Secretary-General of National Health Commission